++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with clear or sunny spells.

Today:
A fine, dry and sunny day, perhaps just an isolated shower in far west. Temperatures a touch higher than recent days, particularly away from the east coast. Light southeast breezes. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
After a dry and clear start to the evening, some low cloud will begin to push inland from the coast, especially around Banff and Buchan. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tuesday:
Low cloud will be quite persistent around coastal areas but away from the coast a dry and bright day and feeling warm in the light winds. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Largely dry and bright on Wednesday and Thursday, especially across western Aberdeenshire, some warm sunshine. However coastal parts cloudier at times, the cloud spreading inland overnight. Friday perhaps more showery.
